Tea Chapter started as a small joint venture headed by 13 tea enthusiasts back in 1989. Through a fortunate twist of fate, they came across the chance to experience a proper Chinese Tea Ceremony through a Taiwanese friend. Not long after they were captivated by this beautiful and unique art, Tea Chapter was born. In the effort to preserve culture and heritage, Tea Chapter decided to rent a shop house at Tanjong Pagar. Not long after, the establishment of Tea Chapter, they were visited by Queen Elizabeth II. Among those who have tried their imperial golden cassia are Prime Minister Lee, President Tony Tan, Former President S.R. Nathan and many other famous figures. Tea Chapter is currently the biggest tea house in Singapore, selling everything from tea leaves, tea wares, tea books. Tea Chapter has also become a big name in Tea Appreciation education over the years and provides mooncakes.

In the museum, you will also find award winning designs in the field of product and communication design from her over 55 countries. Housed in the iconic Red Dot traffic building – a former Singapore Traffic Police Headquarters built during Singapore pre-independence British colonial era brushed in a bright coat of red offering a refreshing does of creativity in the centre of Singapore Business District.

Toast Box was established in December 2005. It has fast expanded to more than 30 outlets strategically located all over Singapore, made easy and convenient to the customers. Toast Box is a reflection of the coffee shops from the 60s and 70s, where the common practice for breakfast was a fragrant cup of Nanyang Coffee accompanied by freshly toasted bread. This warm nostalgic concept was reinvented to bring back fond memories for those who missed the good old times, and for the younger ones to experience the feel and flavours of a bygone era.

Thye Moh Chan reputed for its authentic hand crafted pastries such as the famous "tau sar piah", TMC's 70 year old heritage forms a significant part of the Singapore Chinese Culture. The recent relaunch of Thye Moh Chan by Breadtalk Group marks the iconic revival of the 70 year old brand. The art of traditional hand crafted Teochew confections, customs and history will continue to flourish and it will speaks to a new generation with modern sensibilities by presenting traditional flavours tastefully packaged in a contemporary style. Thye Moh Chan features a wide selection of all-time classics & new innovative flavours.
