

Dear Chinatown Stakeholders,

Welcome to the 1st issue of Chinatown Business Association E-Newsletter! Starting from July 2011, CBA will be introducing a monthly E-Newsletter with updates on what's happening in Chinatown, as well as interesting events or activities that you can participate in.

Do visit our website for more updates and information. As this is our first issue, please give us your valuable feedbacks on how we can further improve our future updates.

Thank you.

Mr. Wong Chi Keong
Chairman, Chinatown Business Association

Join Us!
Join us as a member of CBA! Visit our website for more information.

Do You Know??
Pagoda Street (also known as Kwong Hup Yuen Kai) was one of the many 'stations' for 'slave traders'. The shophouse No. 37 Pagoda Street, one of the 12 coolie lodging houses (Coolie Fong) in 1901, and owned by the widely known slave trader, Kwong Hup Yuen.

Announcement

We are very pleased to announce that Mr. James Ong has joined CBA as the new Executive Director. James brings a wealth of experience, having worked in both the retail industry and with the Singapore Furniture Association.

Latest Development of CBA

To find out the latest updates of Chinatown Business Association, visit our revamped Chinatown web portal at www.chinatown.sg, Face Book Group "I LOVE CHINATOWN SINGAPORE", and Twitter "chinatownsg88".

Past Activities

Singapore Art Festival 2011: Yesterday – Mobile Karaoke
Smith Street
31 May 2011

Swap 'N' Shop V "The Ultimate Chinatown Flea Experience"
Smith Street, Garden Bridge
18 & 19 June 2011

Upcoming Activities

1st ever promotion in Chinatown, beginning on every Tuesday of July 2011, with half price promotions at participating outlets.

About CBA

Chinatown Business Association (CBA) is set up by a group of passionate Chinatown stakeholders drawn from a cross-section of business leaders, grassroots leaders, Chinese clan associations, hoteliers, hawkers, retailers, and more. We are a non-profit organisation serving and promoting the business and community interest of stakeholders in Chinatown.